

Jim “Jimmy” Schauer President-GH Holdings

Meet Jim “Jimmy” Schauer, President of GH Holdings, the parent company of industry leaders LineQuest and Gridhawk.

With over 25 years of experience across the energy and utilities sectors, Jimmy brings a unique blend of visionary leadership and deep operational knowledge to GH Holdings. Before stepping into his current role, he served as Vice President at EWN, a global leader in cloud-based workforce solutions for the oil and gas industry.

Jimmy’s career includes serving as CEO and Managing Director of a leading LNG virtual pipeline company, and spearheading major intrastate midstream pipeline projects along the Gulf Coast. His extensive expertise spans unregulated natural gas marketing, where he managed daily sales volumes exceeding half a billion cubic feet nationwide, as well as significant tenure in regulated natural gas utilities.

Beyond the boardroom, Jimmy is recognized as the past co-host of the popular energy podcast Coffee with Jim & James, where his engaging insights and industry commentary have earned him a loyal following.

Based in West Palm Beach, Florida, Jimmy shares life with his wife, Tammy Bomia, a seasoned professional with 25+ years in pipeline composite solutions at ClockSpring-NRI. Together, they enjoy outdoor adventures, culinary exploration, and quality time with their three beloved dogs.

This year marks a significant personal milestone for Jimmy: celebrating 14 years of sobriety—a testament to his resilience, dedication, and commitment to growth both professionally and personally.
